

Improving Data Quality in the National Joint Registry

Programme:

From 10:00 Registration with tea, coffee and biscuits

NJR DATA QUALITY

10:25 Welcome and programme introduction

Inez Dunn, Regional Coordinator Team Leader and Regional Coordinator for West Midlands

10.30 NJR Data Quality and the wider landscape

Elaine Young, NJR Director of Operations

10.45 The NJR Data Quality Audit: i) Lessons from Year 1, ii) Update from Year 2, iii) Introduction of the audit to the independent sector

- Mr Martyn Porter, NJR Medical Director and NJR Data Quality Sub-committee chair
- Mr David Macdonald, NJR Steering Committee independent sector representative

11.25 Question and Answer session (all speakers)

11:45 Tea and coffee break

NJR IN PRACTICE

12.00 Metal-on-metal hip replacement: patient surveillance and information giving process

Dr Gail Parsons & Professor Rebecca Jester, Trauma & Orthopaedics, The Dudley Group NHS Trust

12.20 The Patient's Perspective

Sue Musson and Gillian Coward, NJR Steering Committee's patient representatives

12.55 Question and Answer session (all speakers)

13.15 Networking Lunch: a sandwich lunch and refreshments provided

NJR DEVELOPMENTS

14.00 Accountability and transparency – using the NJR for surgeon appraisal

Mr Martyn Porter, NJR Medical Director and NJR Data Quality Sub-committee chair

14.10 NJR developments 1: Regional Coordinators' national roles and contacting the NJR

Inez Dunn, Regional Coordinator Team Leader and Regional Coordinator for West Midlands

14.20 NJR developments 2: INFORM/ Annual Clinical Reports & Consultant Level Report data/ MDS v7

Mike Swanson, Northgate Public Services, NJR data management and associated services

14.40 Closing Question and Answer session (all speakers)

NJR TUTORIALS

15:00 Data entry demonstrations with tea, coffee and biscuits

Optional session – NJR Regional Coordinators will be on hand to offer data entry demonstrations, including Clinician Feedback, and happy to offer any other 1:1 tutorials.

16.00 Close

#NJRWestMid or follow the NJR on Twitter @JointRegistry